

No. 8.

AN ORDINANCE relating to Billiard Saloons and Bowling Alleys.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth :

To obtain a license.

SEC. 1. That if any person keep a billiard saloon, or ball alley, with or without charge, within the limits of this city, without first having obtained a license therefor in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, he or they shall forfeit to this city, for every conviction for such offence, a sum not less than thirty, nor more than one hundred dollars.

Penalty.

License fee.

SEC. 2. That every person who shall keep a billiard table in this city, shall pay the sum of twenty dollars per annum as license therefor; and every person who shall keep a ball alley, shall pay the sum of thirty-five dollars per annum as license therefor; and no license shall be granted for a billiard table or ball alley for a less time than one year.

For one year.

To give bond.

SEC. 3. The granting of the license, herein contemplated, shall be in the discretion of the city council, upon application being made thereto; but before any such license shall issue, the applicant shall pay to the city treasurer the sum required for such license, and give a bond with sufficient security in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, conditioned, that he will not permit any gambling, or betting, upon any game played upon his licensed premises; nor permit any minor to engage in any game thus played, nor sell, or suffer to be sold, any intoxicating drinks in or upon said premises, without first having obtained a license therefor.

Gambling or betting on games prohibited.

To be issued by the mayor.

SEC. 4. That upon presenting to the mayor, the treasurer's receipt, and the bond required by the last section, which said bond shall be approved by the mayor, and filed with the city clerk, it shall be the duty of the mayor to issue to the applicant a license, which shall be signed by the mayor, and attested by the city clerk, under the seal of the city; and the city clerk shall enter in a suitable book, the date of said license, the amount paid therefor, the time of its expiration, and the name of the party to whom granted, together with a description of the premises to which the same shall apply; and said license shall not be assignable, nor shall the place be changed without the consent of the mayor, attested by the city clerk, and endorsed on said license; and such license shall be subject to be annulled by the city council for any violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

Clerk to record.

Liable to be annulled.

Whereas the question of loaning the credit of this city for the purpose of raising a sum of fifty thousand dollars, and pledging the revenue of the city for the payment of the same, has been submitted to the qualified voters of this city, at an election held by proclamation of the mayor thereof, on the 18th day of May 1888; and whereas, at said election, two thirds of all the votes cast were in favor of said loan, fulfilling the requirements of the Charter of said city, therefore:

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of

SEC. 1. That the mayor of this city be and is hereby authorized to issue bonds of this city, not exceeding in amount $50,000, in sums of not less than one hundred dollars each, bearing ten per cent. interest per annum, and payable in ten years from the date thereof.

SEC. 2. That the mayor is hereby authorized to negotiate and sell said bonds on the most favorable terms possible, and as fast as the wants of the city may require.

SEC. 3. There shall be attached to each of said bonds, interest coupons for the amount of annual interest due on each bond.

SEC. 4. That the city of Leavenworth shall hereby raise, in addition to the annual tax of said city, a sufficient amount of money in each year to pay the accruing interest on all outstanding bonds, which sum shall be kept as a special fund for that purpose, and that said money shall be raised in each year in time to promptly meet said accruing interest.

SEC. 5. That, for the payment of the principal sums of said bonds, the city hereby pledges its revenue, and such as it may, by the provisions of its Charter, acquire, subject to the provision that the city will take such steps for the payment of said bonds at maturity, by creating a sinking fund, as may be most just and proper.

Mayor authorized to issue bonds.

Mayor may sell bonds.

Coupons.

Interest how raised and paid.

Principal how paid.

Sinking fund.

No. 9.

AN ORDINANCE relating to City Bonds.

Preamble.

Whereas the question of loaning the credit of this city for the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and pledging the revenue of the city for the payment of the same, has been submitted to the qualified voters of this city, at an election held by proclamation of the mayor thereof, on the 18th day of May 1858; and whereas, at said election, two thirds of all the votes cast were in favor of said loan, fulfilling the requirements of the Charter of said city, therefore:

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth:

Mayor authorized to issue bonds.

SEC. 1. That the mayor of this city be and is hereby authorized to issue bonds of this city, not exceeding in amount $50,000, in sums of not less than one hundred dollars each, bearing ten per cent. interest per annum, and payable in ten years from the date thereof.

Mayor may sell bonds.

SEC. 2. That the mayor is hereby authorized to negotiate and sell said bonds on the most favorable terms possible, and as fast as the wants of the city may require.

Coupons.

SEC. 3. There shall be attached, to each of said bonds, interest coupons for the amount of annual interest due on each bond.

Interest how raised and paid.

SEC. 4. That the city of Leavenworth shall hereby raise, in addition to the annual tax of said city, a sufficient amount of money in each year to pay the accruing interest on all outstanding bonds, which sum shall be kept as a special fund for that purpose, and that said money shall be raised in each year in time to promptly meet said accruing interest.

Principal how paid.

SEC. 5. That, for the payment of the principal sums of said bonds, the city hereby pledges its revenue, and such as it may, by the provisions of its Charter, acquire, subject to the provision that the city will take such steps for the payment of said bonds at maturity, by creating a sinking fund, as may be most just and proper.

Sinking fund.

No. 10.

AN ORDINANCE providing for the Building of a Bridge across Three Mile Creek.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth:

SEC. 1. That there be constructed across Three Mile Creek, at the point where it is intersected by Second street, a good and substantial arched stone bridge, and that the approaches to the same be filled and graded according to the established grade of the city, and that the cost of such filling be a part of the cost of said bridge.

Across Three Mile Creek, at Second street.

Arched and of stone.

Filling part of cost.

SEC. 2. The city engineer is hereby directed to prepare a plan and specifications for said bridge, with an estimate of the cost of the same.

Engineer to prepare plan and make estimate.

SEC. 3. John H. Day, Jeremiah Clark and Samuel Few are hereby appointed commissioners to superintend the erection and construction of said bridge, with full powers to make, under the direction of the mayor and council, all necessary contracts for the construction of the same, in accordance with such plans as may be adopted by the city council.

Superintending committee appointed.

SEC. 4. The cost of the erection of said bridge, and all necessary expenses with reference to the same, shall be paid by the general tax on all the real estate situated in that part of the city lying south of said creek, and known as Clark's & Rees', Fackler's, and Day's additions to said city.

Cost of erection how to be paid.

SEC. 5. That as soon as the city engineer shall present to the city council a certificate of the total cost of the construction of said bridge, the city clerk shall make, from the last preceding general assessment roll of the city, a list of all the real estate lying within the bounds of that portion of the city, upon which the cost of said bridge, by ordinance, is a charge; which list shall contain the number of each lot and block, the assessed value of each lot, and the name of the owner of each lot, so far as the same can be ascertained, or is known, by the city clerk.

Clerk to make out assessment roll.

SEC. 6. The city clerk shall levy and apportion the cost and expenses of said bridge upon the real estate in said roll, in proportion to the value of each piece; and, when completed, make a full and correct copy of the same, and, to said copy, attach the warrant prescribed by the 28th section of an ordinance, entitled "An Ordinance relating to Assessment of the Revenue;" and all the provisions for the collection of said tax shall be in conformity with the provisions of said last mentioned ordinance.

Tax for constructing.

Collector to give bond.

SEC. 7. The said city marshal shall, before he proceed to collect said tax roll, execute to the city a bond with two or three sureties, to be approved by the mayor, in double the amount of tax in said roll, conditioned that he will faithfully collect said tax, and account for, and pay over said money as described by the warrant of collection.

Delinquent tax how collected.

SEC. 8. If, upon the return of said tax roll to the city clerk, there shall be remaining unpaid any sums of money set down in said list, the city shall sue the owners of the real estate on which said money is due in any court of competent jurisdiction, and receive judgement therefor, and collect the same agreeably to the law regulating judgement and execution.

Money collected how to be applied.

SEC. 9. The money thus collected and paid into the city treasury shall be applied to the payment of the cost of said bridge, in such sums, and at such times, as the mayor and city council may direct; the same to be drawn from the city treasury in the same manner that other moneys are drawn.

Duties of superintending committee.

SEC. 10. The commissioners appointed by this ordinance to superintend the construction of said bridge, shall see that the same is well done and completed within a reasonable time to be named in the contract for building.

Attorney to prepare contract.

SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of the city attorney to prepare all contracts that may be needed under this ordinance; and, receiving therefor reasonable compensation, which, with the costs of this ordinance, shall be included in the expenses of the erection of said bridge.

No. 11.

AN ORNINANCE providing for the Construction of Cisterns.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth :

SEC. 1. That there be constructed in said city four good and substantial cisterns, to contain not less than five hundred barrels of water each ; one at the intersection of Delaware and Fourth streets ; one at the intersection of Seneca and Third streets ; one at the intersection of Shawnee and Fifth streets ; and one at the intersection of Delaware and Second streets.

Four to be constructed, of 500 barrels each.

SEC. 2. The city engineer is hereby directed to prepare a plan and specification for said cisterns, with an estimate of the cost of the same.

City engineer to prepare plan.

SEC. 3. Immediately after the passage of this ordinance, the city clerk shall publish the same in the city newspaper, and advertise for sealed proposals to build said cisterns ; said proposals to be filed in the office of the city clerk by twelve o'clock, M., of the day named in said advertisement, not exceeding ten days from the time of such advertisement.

City clerk to advertise for proposals.

SEC. 4. When said proposals shall have been filed in the office of the city clerk, he shall report the same to the city council at the next meeting thereafter, and the same shall be referred to the committee on fire department, who shall award the contract for constructing said cisterns to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders ; Provided, that if said bidder or bidders shall, for the space of one week after such award, fail or neglect to enter into and sign the contract to be prepared by the city attorney for said purpose, and to enter into bonds with good and sufficient surety or sureties, to be approved by the mayor, in such penal sum as may be ordered by said committee, for the faithful performance of such contract, then, such award shall be null and void, and the city council may award such contract to the next lowest responsible bidder or bidders, or to any other person or persons whom the said council may deem fit and proper ; such next lowest bidder or bidders, or other person or persons being required to sign the contract and give the bond hereinbefore named.

Committee on fire department to award contract.

City council may award when party fails to give bond.

No. 12.

AN ORDINANCE relating to City Clerk (*).

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth :

To give bond.

SEC. 1. That before entering upon the duties of his office, and within ten days from and after his election, the city clerk shall give a bond to the city with sufficient surety, to be approved by the mayor, and in the sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

Duties of.

SEC. 2. The city clerk shall perform all the duties of clerk of the city council, and shall keep all the records of the city, and shall have and preserve in his office all records, public papers and documents belonging to the city.

Duties of.

SEC. 3. He shall also keep a record of all licenses granted by the mayor or council, with the date of said licenses, and the amount paid therefor, and the time of their expiration.

Duties of.

SEC. 4. He shall attest the signature of the mayor to all drafts, bonds, licenses, ordinances, &c., and shall have and preserve the official seal of the city, and shall affix it to all such papers as may be required by ordinance.

Duties of.

SEC. 5. The city clerk shall keep a record of every draft, or order which may be issued on the city treasury, with the number, date and amount of said order, or draft, with the name of the person to whom the same has been issued.

Duties of.

SEC. 6. He shall also keep a record, in a suitable book, of every account allowed or ordered paid by the council, together with the amount of said account as presented, the amount allowed, and the date of allowance.

Duty of.

SEC. 7. The city clerk shall keep account of all receipts and disbursements of money, funds, and revenue of said city, in convenient books, in which shall be opened and kept, in a proper manner, a general account of all the receipts and disbursements of the city, and a particular personal account with each individual receiving any contract, or performing any public work, giving (*) See Ordinance No. 6, as to what part of clerk's duties are now performed by auditor.

ing each credit for the amount of each contract or work performed, and charging him with the amount of all orders issued in his favor, noting the particular contract, public work, or account, for which every such appropriation shall have been made. He shall also keep an account with each of the officers of the city government, crediting them the amount of their salary, or fees, as fast as the same becomes due, and charging them with all orders issued in their favor.

SEC. 8. The city clerk shall attend at his office in the council chamber, every day, (Sunday excepted,) from 9 A. M. to 12 M., and at such other hours as a faithful discharge of his duties may require. Office hours.

SEC. 9. The city clerk shall have power to appoint one or more deputies, whose appointment shall be approved by the mayor before it is perfected; and all acts done by such deputy shall be in the name of the city clerk, and the city clerk shall be responsible for the acts of his deputy. Appoint deputy.

SEC. 10. The city clerk shall make an annual report, in writing, to the city council, of the number of licenses issued during the past year, and the amount respectively received for the same; the amount of scrip, bonds and drafts issued by the city, the amount due each and every person from the city, on account of any contract or labor performed for the city, and of all other business transactions of the city. Annual report, and what to contain.

SEC. 11. The city clerk shall also perform all such other duties as may be imposed upon him, by ordinances or resolutions of the city council. Other duties.

(Sections Nos. 5, 6, 7 and 10 superceded by Ordinance No. 6.)

No. 13.

AN ORDINANCE relating to Concealed Weapons.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth:

SEC. 1. That hereafter it shall be unlawful to carry any concealed weapons within the limits of this city.

SEC. 2. That any person guilty of carrying a pistol, dirk, bowie-knife, colt, slung-shot, brass, lead or iron knuckles, or any other deadly weapon within the city of Leavenworth, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than five, nor more than two hundred dollars. This ordinance to take effect from and after its passage.

Penalty.

No. 14.

AN ORDINANCE relating to Elections.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth:

SEC. 1. The regular annual election for mayor, councilmen, and such other officers as by law, or ordinance, are required to be elected by the people, shall be held on the first Monday in September in each year, in the respective wards, at such places as the mayor may direct. Elections when and where held.

SEC. 2. The said election shall be held in each ward by three judges of election, to be appointed by the mayor; and said judges shall appoint two clerks of election in each ward. Judges & clerks to be appointed.

SEC. 3. Before receiving any votes, the judges and clerks of each election shall severally take an oath, or affirmation, that they "will support the Constitution of the United States, the Organic Act of this Territory, and will perform the duties of their respective offices according to law, and will studiously endeavor to prevent all fraud, deceit or abuse in conducting the same;" said oath or affirmation shall be in writing, shall be subscribed by the persons taking the same, and may be administered by any person authorized to administer oaths, and shall be annexed and returned with the poll books to the city clerk. Oath of judges and clerks.

SEC. 4. If upon the opening of the polls, in either ward, a vacancy shall exist in the judges of election, the electors present are hereby authorized by vote to supply the vacancy from among their own number. Vacancies how filled.

SEC. 5. At every election held under this ordinance, the polls shall be opened at 9 o'clock A. M., and closed at 5 o'clock P. M. Polls, open and close when.

SEC. 6. All votes offered at any election of city officers under this ordinance, shall be by ballot, upon which shall be written or printed, the names of every person for whom the voter may desire to vote, with the title of the office of each person for whom he votes. Ballot. Form of.

SEC. 7. Every person who shall vote, or offer to vote, more than once at any election held in this city for city officers, shall, Penalty for voting more than once.

upon conviction, be fined not less than ten, nor more than one hundred dollars.

Qualification of voter.

SEC. 8. Every free white male person, being twenty-one years of age, who is a citizen of the United States, or has lawfully declared his intention to become such, and who has resided in this city for thirty days next prior to any election held in this city for city officers, is hereby declared a qualified voter in the ward in which he may reside, at the time of said election.

Penalty for illegal voting.

SEC. 9. Any person not being a qualified voter according to the last preceding section, who shall knowingly and willfully vote at any election in this city for city officers, or, being a qualified voter, shall cast more than one ballot, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than ten, nor more than one hundred dollars.

Challenge.

SEC. 10. The right of any person to vote under this ordinance may be challenged by any person being himself a qualified voter, and when so challenged shall be examined under oath by any one of the judges of election, and if a majority of said judges deem him a qualified voter, his vote shall be accepted.

Votes to be canvassed.

SEC. 11. As soon as the poll of the election shall be finally closed, the judges shall immediately proceed to canvass the votes given at such election, and the canvass shall be public, and continued without adjournment until completed.

Mode of canvassing.

SEC. 12. The canvass shall commence by a comparison of the poll lists from the commencement, and a correction of any mistakes that may be found therein, until they shall be found or made to agree. The box shall then be opened, and the ballots contained therein taken out and counted by the judges, unopened, except so far as to ascertain whether each ballot is single, and if two or more ballots shall be found so folded together as to present the appearance of a single ballot, they shall be laid aside until the count of the ballots is completed, and if upon a comparison of the count and the appearance of such ballots thus folded together, it shall be evident said ballots were voted by one elector, they shall be destroyed.

Mode of canvassing.

SEC. 13. If the ballots in the box shall be found to exceed in number the whole number of voters on the poll list, they shall be replaced in the box, and one of the judges shall publicly draw out and destroy therefrom so many ballots, unopened, as shall be equal to such excess.

SEC. 14. The ballots and poll lists agreeing, or being made to agree, the board shall then proceed to count and ascertain the number of votes. Votes to be counted.

SEC. 15. The canvass being completed, the judges shall draw up a statement of the result in writing, which statement they shall certify to be correct, and subscribe with their names, which shall be attested by the clerks. Certificate of judges.

SEC. 16. Such statement shall set forth in words at length the whole number of votes given for each office at such election, the names of the persons for whom such votes were given, and the number of votes so given for each person. Form of certificate.

SEC. 17. The poll lists, with the oaths of the officers and the statement of votes, shall be securely sealed up and endorsed on the same the contents, and by one of said judges, filed with the city clerk within twenty-four hours after said election. Poll lists, &c., to be filed with city clerk.

SEC. 18. At the first meeting of the city council after said election, they shall proceed to open said returns and ascertain the persons elected, and shall order the city clerk to record the name of each person elected, and the office to which he was elected, and give to each person a certificate of election. Council to open returns.
Clerk to record names of officers and issue certificates of election.

SEC. 19. In case any two or more persons shall have received the same number of votes for the same office, the city council shall order a new election for that office. In case of tie.

SEC. 20. If any person desire to contest the election of any person appearing by said returns to have been elected to any city office, such person shall state, in writing, to the city council, at said meeting, the grounds of said contest, and the said city council shall fix a time and place at which they will hear and determine said contest. Elections how contested.

SEC. 21. The person making said contest shall, within twenty-four hours after filing with the city council a notice of said contest, serve upon the person whose election he contests a similar notice of the grounds of said contest, with the time and place at which the city council will hear and determine the same. How contested.

SEC. 22. At the time and place fixed by the city council, they shall hear and determine said contest as in their judgment shall appear just and lawful, and the decision rendered by the city council shall be final and conclusive. How contested.

SEC. 23. The judges and clerks of election shall each be entitled to three dollars for each day they shall serve as such. Fees of judges and clerks.

SEC. 24. At least ten days before any election in this city,

Proclamation of mayor.

the mayor shall issue a proclamation giving notice of the time and place of holding said election in each ward, and the names of three persons in each ward as judges of election, and, also, the officers to be elected.

Form of certificate.

Sec. 16. Such statement shall set forth in words at length the whole number of votes given for each office at such election, the names of the persons for whom such votes were given, and the number of votes so given for each person.

Poll lists, &c., to be filed with city clerk.

Sec. 17. The poll lists, with the oaths of the officers and the statement of votes, shall be securely sealed up and endorsed on the same the contents, and by one of said judges, filed with the city clerk within twenty-four hours after said election.

Council to open election, they shall proceed to open said returns and ascertain the persons elected, and shall order the city clerk to record the name of each person elected, and the office to which he was elected, and issue certificates of election.

Sec. 18. At the first meeting of the city council after said election, they shall proceed to open said returns and ascertain the persons elected, and shall order the city clerk to record the name of each person elected, and the office to which he was elected, and give to each person a certificate of election.

In case of tie.

Sec. 19. In case any two or more persons shall have received the same number of votes for the same office, the city council shall order a new election for that office.

Elections how contested.

Sec. 20. If any person desire to contest the election of any person appearing by said returns to have been elected to any city office, such person shall state, in writing, to the city council, at said meeting, the grounds of said contest, and the said city council shall fix a time and place at which they will hear and determine said contest.

How contested.

Sec. 21. The person making said contest shall, within twenty-four hours after filing with the city council a notice of said contest, serve upon the person whose election he contests a similar notice of the grounds of said contest, with the time and place at which the city council will hear and determine the same.

How contested.

Sec. 22. At the time and place fixed by the city council, they shall hear and determine said contest as in their judgment shall appear just and lawful, and the decision rendered by the city council shall be final and conclusive.

Fees of judges and clerks.

Sec. 23. The judges and clerks of election shall each be entitled to three dollars for each day they shall serve as such.
Sec. 24. At least ten days before any election in this city,

No. 15.

AN ORDINANCE relating to City Engineer.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth :

SEC. 1. The city engineer shall hold his office for one year Term of office.
from the date of his appointment, unless sooner removed.

SEC. 2. The duties of the city engineer shall be to make all Duties of.
surveys of the streets and alleys in this city, and report to the city council a system of grades for the same ; to make all estimates and calculations for grading the same ; to have general supervision of all grading done for the city, and see that it is done according to the grade and contract.

SEC. 3. It shall be his duty to make such profiles and maps Duties of.
of the grade of the city, as he may be directed to make by the mayor and city council.

SEC. 4. (Repealed.) Compensation.

SEC. 5. The city engineer may charge, for services per- Additional fees.
formed for individuals, not more than the following fees : for giving the grade of a lot, one dollar, and for each additional lot, when contiguous, fifty cents ; for measuring and marking the corners of a lot, and giving the grade for the same, two dollars, and one dollar for each additional contiguous lot ; for establishing the grade and corners of a lot and calculating the necessary cutting or filling of the same, five dollars.

SEC. 6. All ordinances and parts of ordinances, inconsistent Repealing with this ordinance, are hereby repealed. clause.

No. 16.

AN ORDINANCE relating to Exhibitions and Shows.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth:

To obtain license.

SEC. 1. That no person shall exhibit, in this city, any theatrical performance, circus or show, nor have, or make any public exhibition of any kind, except those of a literary, scientific or artistical character, to which an admission fee is charged, without having first obtained a license therefor, as herein prescribed.

How obtained.

SEC. 2. Any person desiring to exhibit any such show in this city, shall first apply to the mayor for a license, who shall have power to determine whether a license is required, the propriety of granting one, and, also, the amount to be paid therefor, which shall not be less than five, nor more than one hundred dollars; and upon payment of the same to the city treasurer by the applicant, the mayor shall issue a license stating therein the character of the exhibition, the person licensed, and the number of exhibitions. And the mayor shall be entitled to one dollar for granting said license, to be paid by the applicant.

Cost of.

Mayor's fee.

Penalty.

SEC. 3. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars.

No. 17.

AN ORDINANCE relating to Ferry Company.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Leavenworth:

SEC. 1. That William S. Reyburn, David H. Powers, Jonathan H. Lockwood, and their associates, heirs and assigns, shall have the exclusive right and privilege of keeping and maintaining a public ferry across the Missouri river, within the corporate limits of this city, for and during the term of twenty years, from and after the passage of an act of the Kansas Legislature, entitled, "An act to establish a ferry at the town of Leavenworth, in the Territory of Kansas."

Exclusive ferry privileges granted.

Term of.

SEC. 2. All the rights, privileges, immunities, conditions and liabilities granted to Thomas C. Shoemaker, Jarrett Todd, and Samuel D. Pitcher, by the certain act of the Kansas Legislature in the last section specified, are hereby recognized, confirmed and enjoined upon the said Reyburn, Powers & Co., they being the assignees of the original corporators.

Rights, &c., transferred.

SEC. 3. No person, or persons, except those herein mentioned, their heirs or assigns, or employees, shall, during the term aforesaid, land passengers or freight upon the river bank within the corporate limits of this city, from the island, or Missouri shore, for pay or reward.

Exclusive right to land passengers & freight.

SEC. 4. The exclusive ferry privileges thus confirmed unto Reyburn, Powers & Co., their associates, heirs and assigns, shall be subject, at all times, during the existence of the Charter, to such city tax, or license, as the mayor and councilmen may from time to time impose; this ordinance to be in force from and after its approval.

License and conditions.

Stanley, William. Charter and Ordinances of the City of Leavenworth. Frank F. Barclay's English, French and German Printing Establishment, 1859. The Making of Modern Law: Primary Sources, link.gale.com%2Fapps%2Fdoc%2FDT0106318094%2FMMLP%3Fu%3Dchic40381%26sid%3Dsummon. Accessed 10 Feb. 2026.