Europe to California for $30.

We are assured by the energetic managers of the Southern-Pacific Railroad, that, within two years, that road will have its own through, independent line completed from San Francisco to Galveston, a distance of 2140 miles. The Southern-Pacific will form a junction, in about two months, with the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe line at El Paso, the latter town being 850 miles distant from Galveston, and 1250 miles from this city; but El Paso will only be a temporary junction; the Southern-Pacific will push on Eastward, as we have said, until it reaches Galveston. A line of heavy freight and immigrant steamers will run from Galveston to Liverpool, Bremen and Hamburg. Immigrants will be brought from those ports to California for $30, and perhaps less. The comparatively empty valleys and unsettled grape-growing hill-sides of the State, but especially of Southern California, will be rapidly filled up with an industrious and desirable population. The railroad folks think the impetus given to immigration and general business by the development of mining and agricultural wealth will give California a population of five millions of people within ten years, and make San Francisco one of the largest and most important cities of the United States. Cheap through transportation from Europe to California—the immigrant going direct from the steamship into the railroad car that is to carry him westward—has for years been the great want of the State. A difference of $5 to $10 in the cost of reaching a given point is sufficient to secure or lose thousands of immigrants, with the great majority of whom $5 is a very large sum of money. That the plan mentioned above will fill California up with much-needed people we do not for one moment doubt. Railroad men ridicule the idea of this city being injured by the shipment of wheat by rail to Galveston. They are all of the opinion that for one dollar this city loses from this source, it will receive $10 in compensation, by the opening up of new regions of agricultural and mineral wealth and commercial intercourse. They think, and we fully agree with them, that the more railroads in all directions we have the more development, business and prosperity we will secure.—S. F. Real Estate Circular.

All Sorts.

Nothing but a good life can fit men for a better one.

A newly-married couple were sitting in a palace car, when she said: "Georgie, ain't you glad? We're relatives now."

It was a Windham wife, who, when her husband was brought home intoxicated, thanked God he was not a blood relation.

A Turkish dollar is worth nine cents, and the Turks look with contempt on the Peruvians, whose dollar is only worth two cents.

A lady and servant girl enter the post-office where the former buys a postage stamp. She then beckons to the maid. The latter sticks out her tongue. The lady moistens her stamp on it, sticks the stamp on the letter and both depart.

Pride is as loud a beggar as want, and a great deal more saucy. When you have bought one fine thing, you must buy ten more, that your appearance may be all of a piece; but it is easier to suppress the first desire than to satisfy all that follow it.

Under a tombstone in the cemetery of Pagny-la-Violette may be read the following inscription: "To the memory of Claudine Menn, wife of Stephen Etienne Renard, died January 28th, 1855, aged 44 years, regretted by her four children, Annie, Pierre, Francois and Barbe, all died before her."

There was once a very smart man and he met a man who was not smart, and said to him: "See here, I am an awful smart man. I know everything and can do anything, yet my pocket, my purse and my stomach are a trinity of emptiness—three in one, and I'm the one; while you, who are not smart, go clothed in purple and fine linen and have your ribs regularly ad-posed. Now tell me, why is this?" And the man who was not smart answered and said that he did not know, but he supposed it must be because the market was overstocked with smart men. Moral: There is none.

The debris dams are nearly completed on the Yuba and Bear rivers, and the work is said to have been done in the most substantial manner. The result of the first winter's freshets will probably settle the question as to the efficacy of the plans adopted for restraining the flow of mining debris into the rivers and over agricultural land in the valleys.

Rich Mine.

Two thousand pounds of rocks recently taken from the Ford, McDonald & Mullen mine at Grass Valley, at a depth of 110 feet, is estimated to be worth from $25,000 to $30,000. Some pieces of a few pounds weight are the value of $300 and $500. The Union says that more of the like character will be taken out at the next stripping of the ledge. It is intended to put the rock through the batteries in a short time, but there are several hundred pounds of it which is more valuable to sell for jewelry than to reduce for bullion. There has been sufficient development in the claim to prove that it is the richest spot of ground in California, as no piece of quartz ground has ever yielded as much gold from the same space and there are no indications that the bonanza is near exhausted. On the contrary, the latest developments are the richest that have been made.

WORTH REMEMBERING.

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

WHERE FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP is used in all other diseases, the benefit which it undoubtedly yields in Consumption and other diseases of the Respiratory Organs would vindicate its claim to the attention of every medical practitioner. From the statistics of England and America it is a fair estimate that one-tenth of the entire deaths is caused by Consumption alone. If the Syrup is used perseveringly it subdues the tendency to Consumption, and in many confirmed cases, as in that of the inventor, it has effected a cure.

Indigestion and habitual Costiveness almost always arise from weakness of the nerves and muscles of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypo-phosphites has proved itself of the greatest service. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy.

This Syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first stage, and will give great relief and prolong life in the second and third. It will cure ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LARYNGITIS, and COUGHS. It will cure all diseases originating from want of Muscular Action and Nervous Force.

Public Speakers and Singers.

Will find this Syrup of inestimable value. A dose should be taken before speaking or singing.

Aphonia, or Loss of Voice, is usually cured by a few doses. We have known cases where a single dose has been effectual.

S. JACOB, M. D., St. John, N. B., writes: "I had occasion to use your Syrup in a case of Aphonia which would not yield to regular treatment; it proved to be all that you claimed for it, having acted with expedition and entire satisfaction."

"Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this, under any circumstances."

After adjournment from their regular meeting last evening, the Knights of Pythias proceeded in a body to make a congratulatory call upon their recently-wedded brother, W. J. Mellor, and his bride, by whom they were most hospitably received.

Pat was yesterday discussing the mortality report with a fellow citizen at one of the loafing places in town, when a thought struck him with such force that he thus used it as a clincher to his argument: "Sure, an' don't ye know there are people dying this year that never died before?" At this the meeting adjourned since die.

F. Borroo has just completed the building of a windmill tower and the putting up of a mill and tanks on his premises east of the stone bridge. The tower is 16 feet square and 45 feet high. The mill is one of Bachelder's largest, and one of the tanks has a capacity of 5,200 gallons while that of the other is 2,000 gallons. The cost of the whole, complete, is $750. Mr. Borroo now feels competent to protect his property against fire.

HAAS & FORD, 123 Main Street.

Joe Mathos' Sherry Works.

Joe Mathos for a number of years has carried on an extensive sherry manufacturing business at his place on Main Street. His oven, in which the wine is converted into sherry by being subjected to a strong heat—literally "baked," night and day for four months—is capable of holding about 17,500 gallons, and is kept in constant operation, making at a low estimate 50,000 gallons a year. Mr. Mathos has laid the foundation and is rapidly pushing toward completion a cellar which, when finished, will extend from his sherry over through to Brown street (100x45 ft.), will be two stories high and will have storage capacity of from 300,000 to 400,000 gallons. In this Mr. Mathos will carry on a regular wine-making business, and will, of course, succeed as he has with his sherry trade.

If, in our growing city, there is a person who is indifferent with regard to the "water question," we think one look at Joe's beautiful place, after a hot, dusty tramp, would convince him that water, and plenty of it, is a good thing to have. Mr. Mathos' home is rightly called "the neatest little place in town."

Concealed Weapons.

The Board of Trustees of Napa, at their last meeting, passed an ordinance against carrying concealed weapons. It is as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person not being a peace officer, who shall within the corporate limits of the City of Napa, carry or wear any dirk, pistol, sword-in-cane, slung-shot, or other dangerous or deadly weapon concealed, except by special permission in writing from the President of the Board of Trustees of said city, shall upon conviction thereof before any Court of competent jurisdiction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in any sum not less than Ten nor more than One Hundred Dollars, and be imprisoned until such fine be paid, not exceeding one day for each dollar of such fine.

The Orphan's Home.

From A. G. A school house, costing $4,500, is soon to be built for the Home. It was decided to admit no visitors to the institution at present, in consequence of the prevalence of smallpox in the State.

Perjury in the Morey Case.

From telegraphic news we learn that a startling denouement occurred at the close of the proceedings in the Philp libel trial Tuesday. Robert Lindsay and Samuel Solomon Morey, witnesses for the defense, were arrested and committed on charge of perjury. Their examination will take place to-day. The case against them appears quite plain, and strengthens the conviction that Henry L. Morey is a myth. Some few days since S. S. Morey testified that Henry L. Morey was his uncle. Evidence was given yesterday by a member of the family that none of its members was ever named Henry L. Morey, while one witness swore that S. S. Morey expressed a fear that his evidence might lead to his arrest, and displayed a large sum of money, tending to show that he had been bribed to swear falsely. As to Lindsay, who pretended to have known Henry L. Morey, it was shown from evidence that he is in complete ignorance of localities with which he pretends to be familiar, and that there is no W. A. Thompson in Cumberland, Md., as he deposed. In his cross-examination he flatly contradicted himself, and gave such evidence of his manner and mode of life as of itself exposed him to the suspicion of perjury, a suspicion which is converted into a certainty by the testimony of reputable witnesses.
